A counseling and teaching ministry dedicated to helping people find help and hope in Christ amidst the struggles of life.

Have you ever wished you could talk openly and confidentially to a few others who really understand what it is like to feel the ache, rage, fear, and confusion from abuse? What would it be like to have a safe place to grapple with the real but hidden questions in your heart; a place to ponder the truth about your own story? Do you wonder if it is possible that God can bring hope, honor, and light again to your often lonely and desperate heart?

Healing Hearts provides a biblically based, professionally led, confidential context where women can find their hearts again, receive support and wrestle with the difficult realities of being harmed by abuse. By considering and telling your story, pondering the Scriptures, reading books, and engaging in intimate conversation, this group will help you take another courageous step on the path toward a life of faith, hope, and restored honor.

"You will make known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in Your presence..." Psalm 16:11
