HONORS PROGRAM FOR MEN - Foundations for Sexual Recovery. This 14-week program provides 30 hours of group time and 15 teaching hours in a context where men who struggle with sexually addictive behavior can come together to lay a solid foundation for relational and sexual recovery. Participants experience healing connection, honest communication and biblical instruction.

"Honors Program is about integrity, humility and love."

"It is a place where men who struggle with sexual brokenness can come to experience healing, connection, honesty and God's redemptive plan with other men just like them. A place where they can journey together with others toward redemption."

"Honors has helped me connect to God and to myself during this personal hell."
