

RESTORING HOPE, HEALTH AND HEART TO THOSE RECOVERING FROM SEXUAL BROKENNESS AND BETRAYAL

HONORS PROGRAM

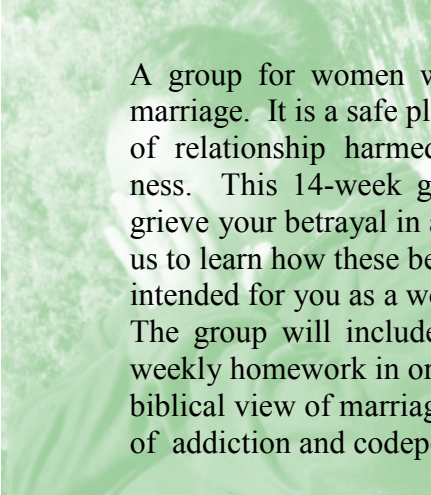

for Women

IS THERE A SAFE PLACE TO BE HONEST?

IS PORNOGRAPHY THE SAME AS ADULTERY?

WILL I SURVIVE THIS BETRAYAL?

WILL OUR MARRIAGE MAKE IT?

A group for women who have experienced betrayal in their marriage. It is a safe place to ask questions and share your story of relationship harmed by sexual unfaithfulness or brokenness. This 14-week group will help you begin to name and grieve your betrayal in a safe community of women. Come join us to learn how these betrayals have harmed what God intended for you as a woman.

The group will include personal sharing, outside reading and weekly homework in order to grow in understanding of a biblical view of marriage, sexual intimacy and the central issues of addiction and codependency.

"When I joined Honors for Women my hope was to meet other women & see in them a part of me. Seeing myself in other women has helped me to heal...to not feel alone anymore...to own what is my part in the recovery journey."

"Honors is a place of rebuilding, gaining a godly perspective on my life and marriage; a place of hope and healing that is safe."

"Honors Program for Women is about humility, integrity and love."
